

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Greenwood Assembly of God

150 Anthony Highway

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Wayne Heights Brethren Church

125 Strickler Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Old Liberty Land & Development Co
122 E Queen Street
Chambersburg , PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237

888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor

Presbyterian Church of Waynesboro

105 East Main Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

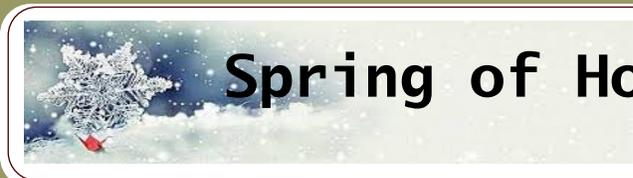

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor

Lifehouse Church

515 E Wilson Blvd

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

WIC

230 S Potomac Street, Suite B
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

G. Steward LLC

2369 High Ave.

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Dominion Counseling & Training Center

5739 S. Laburnum Avenue

Richmond, VA 23231

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor

Church of the Brethren

117 S Church Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

JJG

4961 Cumberland Highway
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Al Adams

413 W. Walter Ave.

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Becky Adams

RD 1 Box 18

Mehoopany, PA 18629

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Todd Allison
1740 Warm Spring Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

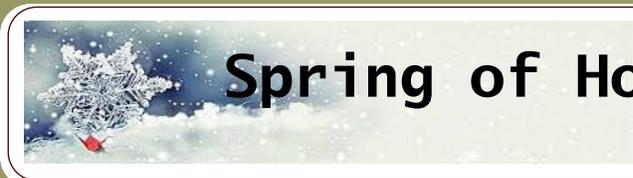

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Amy Arce

1881 Siler Road

Winchester, VA 22603

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Keith Avery
2200 Kensington Street
Harrisburg, PA 17104

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Darrell Baer

274 Matthew Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Craig Bailey

10413 Monta Vista Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268-8403

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Kenneth Baker

237 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

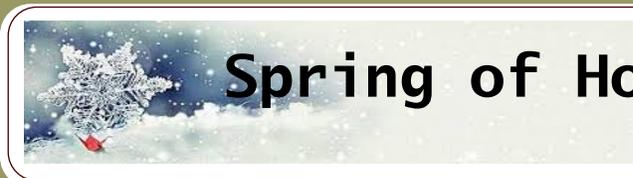

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Jason Bakker

Salem UBC

4349 Letterkenny Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Josh Baldwin

Assembly of God of St. Thomas

173 Rhondel Drive

St. Thomas, PA 17252

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

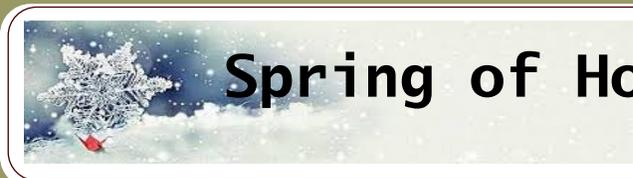

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Maria Banks

2012 Powell Dr.

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Emmert Banzhoff
Painting & Paper Hanging
931 Nelson Street
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237

888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Executive Director Linda Barr

Pregnancy Ministries, Inc.

338 Lincoln Way East

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

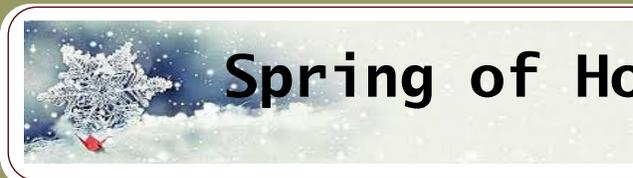

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs William Barrett
11037 Mercersburg Road
Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Carl Batzel

13593 Crawford Avenue

Blue Ridge Summit, PA 17214

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Bell

St. Paul AME Church

30 W. King Street

Waynesboro, Pa 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Deb Benner

14709 Falling Waters Road

Williamsport, MD 21795

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Christy Benner

10652 Thornwood Road

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Curtis Berry

2481 Sardonyx Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Buck Besecker

9244 Five Forks Road

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Cathy Bitner

13698 Williamsport Pike

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Marcus Blank

3985 Horst Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Elwood Bollinger

1164 Knob Hill Road

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Scott Bowerman
Central Presbyterian Church
40 Lincoln Way West
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Jody Bowser

King Street U.B. Church

56 N. 2nd Street

Chambersburg, PA 17201-1820

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Lewis Brantner

803 Burdock Court

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Perry Brazil
11200 Wolfsville Road
Smithsburg, MD 21783

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Anthony Bricker

956 Appleway Road

St. Thomas, PA 17252

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jason Brookens
5773 Whinstone Way
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Richard Bundy

266 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Rev William Burcher

Friendship Baptist

P.O. Box 741

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Laban Burkholder
2241 Loudon Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Stanley Burkholder

2962 Grand Point Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs David A. Burkholder
853 Clay Hill Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Doug Burkholder
Burkholder & Co.
18 N. Oiler Avenue
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Edgar Burkholder

615 Twin Bridge Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202-8058

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Donavan Burkholder
1400 Springview Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Steve Butts

209 W. Main Street

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Jonas Byers

Y.B. Welding, Inc.

990 Progress Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Don Carty

9395 Grindstone Hill Road
Greencastle, PA 17225-9537

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mark Caster

139 Summer Breeze Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Kenneth Chandler

13050 Stahley Road

Blue Ridge Summit, PA 17214

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Bill Chilcote

My Fathers House Ministries

P.O. Box 269

McConnellsburg, PA 17233

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

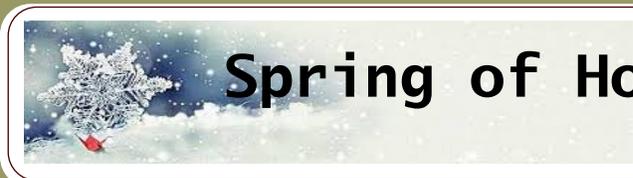

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Craig Clevenger
20139 Trovinger Mill Rd.
Hagerstown, MD 21742

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Tim Clothier
250 Philadelphia Avenue
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dale Clugston
6072 Olde Scotland Road
Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Valletta Coblentz
3151 Leitersburg Road
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Tom Cole

104 Mahogany Way

Upper Gwynedd, PA 19446

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ron Cook

2056 Edgar Avenue Ext

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

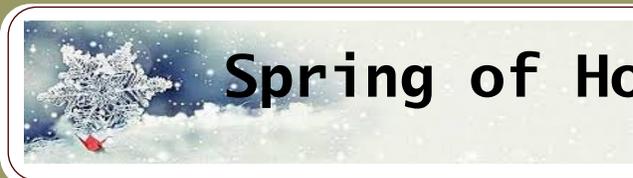

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Vicki Cooper

323 Perry Drive

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Richard Cordell
308 Suelinn Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Vladimir Corea
21917 Academy Terrace
Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

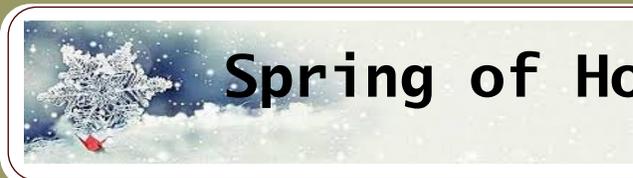

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Kenny Craig
Chambersburg Baptist Church
588 S. Second Street
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Susanne Cramer

254 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Carl Cramer

731 Ryan Lane

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

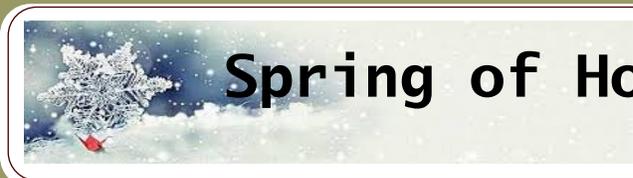

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Ron Crawford

Mt. Rock BIC Church

22 Mt. Rock Road

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Aldeen Crider

Box 178

Marion, PA 17235

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Dawn Crilley-Shank

Remax Elite Services

1580 Buchanan Trail East

P.O. Box 161

Shady Grove, PA 17256

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ted Crist

38 W Catherine Street

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

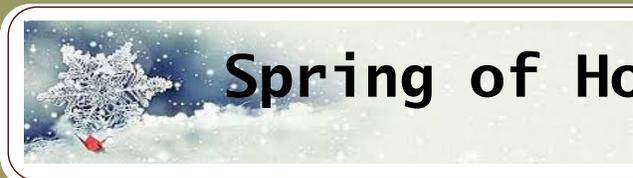

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Casey Crowley

56 Broadway Apt. 3B

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Timothy Culp

17704 Jennifer Lane

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Kirk Davis

Chambersburg Podiatrist

44 Monroe Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ray Davis

1558 Payne Street

Mineral Ridge, OH 44440

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dan Decker

312 Smaltz Drive

Falling Waters, WV 25419

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Adam Defenderfer
397 Warm Spring Road
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237

888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Steve Delaney

The Spring BIC

1238 Scotland Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ben Delgato

6389 Rock Hill Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rodney Denlinger

15806 Penn. Avenue

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ron Denlinger

P.O. Box 387

Maugensville, MD 21767

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Donald Deshong

7887 Kuhn Rd.

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dave Detweiler

5555 Orrstown Road

Orrstown, PA 17244

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs William Dick

426 Clayton Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Barbara Dickey

2326 Majestic Court

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Larry Dimarco

253 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Willy Dingeldein

Zion Covenant Church

1102 Locust Street

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Frank Disbrow

23 Romance Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ryan Drawbaugh

166 Topaz Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Luke Dubois

14441 Marsh Pike

Hagerstown, MD 21742

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mike Dunlap

10633 Shale Rd.

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

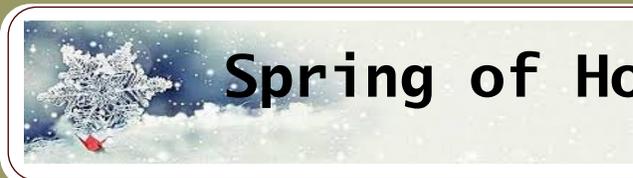

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rob Dunlap
5 Enola Rd.
Newburg, PA 17240

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Carl Dunlap

10707 Shale Rd.

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mark Durniak

10230 Long Lane

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr. & Mrs Steve Eberly

2309 Aronimink Circle

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Lynn Eberly

2071 Mt Pleasant Road

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

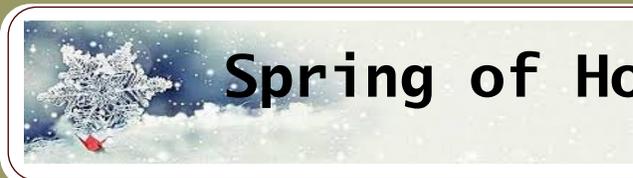

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Keith Eberly

50 Hade Road

St. Thomas, PA 17252

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Eugene Eberly

1560 Mt. Pleasant Rd.

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ralph Ebersole

Ebersole's Sharpening Service

5047 Cumberland Hwy

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Larry Ebersole
6024 Molly Pitcher Hwy
Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Marlin Ebersole
311 Sunbrook Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Arlen Ebersole
2757 Clay Hill Road
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Don Eby

1278 Sollenberger Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Don Eby

1936 Lincoln Way West

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Andrew Eby

Windy Knoll Farm Market

2685 Spring Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Brad Eby

Screen Printing and Embroidery

21 Sarah Susan Lane

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Brian Emery

Salem Ridge Community Church

441 Pensinger Road

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Gary Ervin

3652 Warm Spring Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Andrea Esche

11524 Mystic Rock Lane

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Allen Eshleman
13239 Buchanan Trail West
Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Denise Esser

Waynesboro Community & Human Services

123 Walnut Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jim Evans

17964 Garden Lane - Apt. #3

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Ryan Fair

Martz Plumbing, Heating & Air Conditioning

216 W Fifth Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Mike Fairall

11621 Kimberly Drive

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Steve Ferree
9064 Rinehart Drive
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ron Fleagle
1925 Lincoln Way East
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Larry Forster

16 Gunpowder Road

Mechanicsburg, PA 17050

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Karmon Franklin
3955 Church Road
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs David Fraunfelter

159 Dartmouth Dr.

Hagerstown, Md. 21742

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Bob Freeman
95 Scotch Trail
Fairfield, PA 17320

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Preston Frey

1871 Philadelphia Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Lynn Frey

1808 Rock Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

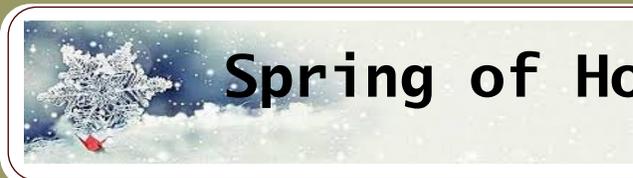

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Brett Frey

Mobile Works LLC

253 Wilkson Lane

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Christian H. Frey

2964 Grand Point Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

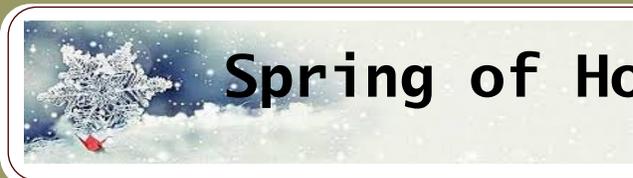

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Larry Frey

2951 Roosevelt Dr.

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Wilbur Fritz
2456 McCleary Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Charles Gabler

641 Montgomery Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Marvin Garber

5455 Bikle Rd.

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rain Garrott
2306 Dargan Road
Sharpsburg, Md. 21782

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Randy Gayman

Synergy AG Services, LLC

2216 Wayne Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Doug Gayman

2560 Edenville Rd.

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Ray Geigley

403 Benjamin Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Adam Gettel

1553 Vaughn Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Director Kathy Gilbert
Pregnancy Ministries, Inc
338 Lincoln Way East
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Barry Ginder

4 U Enterprises

P0 Box 491

Dillsburg, PA 17019

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Steve & Stephanie Gossert
5817 Charlestown Road
Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237

888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Hubert Gower

80 Nottingham Drive

Chambersburg , PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Kate Grenke

4072 Warm Spring Rd.

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jordan Gresczyk

2227 S. Bouvier Street

Philadelphia, PA 19145

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Matt Gunder

8311 Capri CT

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Paul Gunder

Caldwell Banker

1814 E. Main Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs James Gunnell

1122 N Mountain Top Road

McConnellsburg, PA 17233

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Kathleen Gunnell

1374 Schooley Road

Harrisonville, PA 17228

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dale Hager

6242 Hager Road

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Gary Harnish

1367 Hearthside Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202-3389

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Franklin Hatcher

194 Beechwood Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Larry Haugh
11612 Anthony Highway
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Clifford Hawbaker
2300 Edenville Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Alice Hawbaker

Lehman Construction Ser. Inc.

5800 Cumberland Hwy.

Chambersburg , PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Barrie Hawk

6451 Hawk Road

Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Tony Heckman

463 Eugene Dr.

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Christopher Heebner

1034 N Brooklyn Road

Ft. Loudon, PA 17224

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Doug Heishman
47 Clugston Road
Newville, PA 17241

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Nick Helman
542 E Liberty Street
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

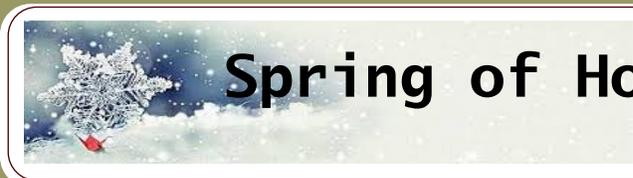

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms April Henry

4326 Fetterhoff Chapel Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

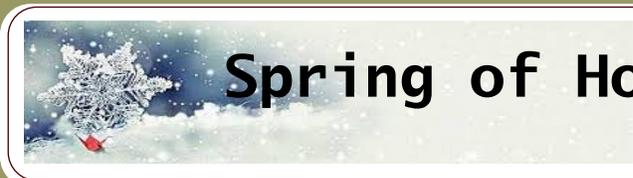

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Tom Hill

204 Tritle Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rick Hockenberry
14583 Mountain Green Road
Willow Hill, PA 17271

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Merle Holsinger

Civil Planning & Design

10764 Buchanan Trail East

Waynesboro, PA 17268-9496

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jay Hoover

730 Kohler Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs James Horst

20506 Miller's Church Road

Hagerstown, MD 21742

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dean Horst

724 Tristan Trail

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Elizabeth Horst

13486 Ridge Road

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Vernon Horst
5002 Cumberland Hwy
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Rick Hostetter
2597 Keller Road
St. Thomas, PA 17252

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Jen Hovis

15 Willow Street

Mt. Alto, PA 17237

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Steve Howard

9237 Ridgefield Circle

Frederick, MD 21701-6744

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Robin Hummer

536 S. Church Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237

888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Casey Hurst

Antrim B. I. C. Church

24 E. Kauffman Road

Chambersburg , PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Bruce James

259 Woodvale Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Harry Jarrett
11953 Path Valley Road
Willow Hill, PA 17271

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Vishal Jetnarayan
3049 Crottlestown Rd
Chambersburg, PA 17202-8019

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Janet Johnston

House of Grace

307 Lincoln Way East

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Jeremy Jones

5210 Mountain Rd.

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Kenn Anne Kane

7202 Talhelm Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Adam Keath

King Street Church

162 East King Street

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Tom Keinath

12 Manor Road

N. Haledon, NJ 07508

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr David Keller

Franklin County Courthouse

157 Lincoln Way E.

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Elivira Kelly

6377 Burning Tree Terrace

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Robert King
417 Crossroad School Road
Carlisle, PA 17015

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Ray Kipe

Five Forks B. I. C. Church

9244 Five Forks Road

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Gary Kipe

Bethel Assembly of God

400 Miller Street

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Bill Kirkpatrick

1678 Black Gap Rd.

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Chuck Kline

197 Social Island Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Brian Klink

7492 Hades Church Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Tim & Deb Koch
206 Cresthaven Drive
Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Robert Kochert

132 Jameslee Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs David Kopp

39 Sunburst Drive

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Don Kretzer

930 Mt. Aetna Road

Hagerstown, MD 21742

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Sheldon Kuhns

P.O. Box 4481

Eagle, CO 80631

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

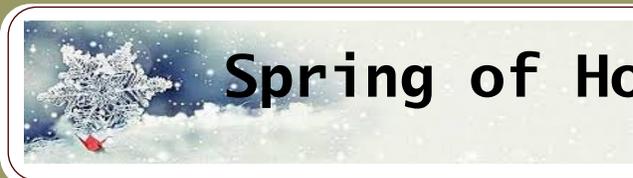

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Brad Kuhns

G. Steward, LLC

2369 High Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Brian Kuhns

263 Cresthaven Drive

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Glenn Kuhns

1316 2nd Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ray Kuhns

67 Roland Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Clyde Kuhns

750 Kohler Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Wayne Kuhns

249 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Merle Kuhns

Menno Village

50 D

Chambersburg, PA 17201-1414

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Jordan Ladzinski

1515 9th Street

Peru, IL 61354

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jack Laird

6203 Grindstone Hill Rd

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Christopher Layton

202 Homewood Ave.

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Dr & Mrs David Leaman

724 Leshar Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ben Lefever

520 Overhill Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Noel Lehman

27 S Church St, Apt 3

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Galen Lehman
420 Clearfield Road
Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

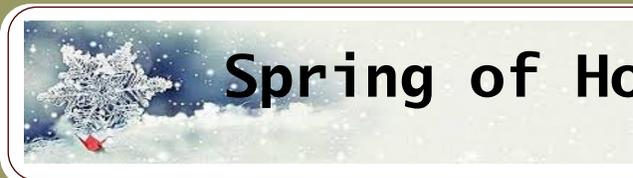

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Allen Lehman
1633 Elizabeth Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Jeremy Lehman

6554 Duffield Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr John Lehman

841 Forest Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Rhoda Lehman

138 Clayton Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs A. Larry Lehman

750 Tallow Hill Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Delton Lehman

LifeGate Ministries

211 S. Main Street

Mont Alto, PA 17237

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dale Lehman

3831 Edenville Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr and Mrs Harry Lehman

3115 Keefer Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Kenny Lehman

1592 Fairview Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Doug Lehman

Overflow Ministries

P.O. Box 750

Chambersburg , PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Delmar Lehman
2085 Guilford Station Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Bruce Lengeman

619 East 28th Division Highway

Lititz, PA 17543

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Michael Linn

5898 Gabrielle Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Anita London

670 Bassett Drive, Apt 2D

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Daniel Long

9789 Welsh Run Road

Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mark Long

1540 Alexander Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Joseph Long

9086 Lindale Avenue

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Charles Long

11940 Martin Lane

Blue Ridge Summit, PA 17214

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Tim Long

Cornerstone Financial

4225 Molly Pitcher Hwy, South

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Rev & Mrs Blaine Lougheed
2079 Castle-Green Drive
Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Anton Luse

Spirit of Christ Comm. Church

1985 Wenger Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

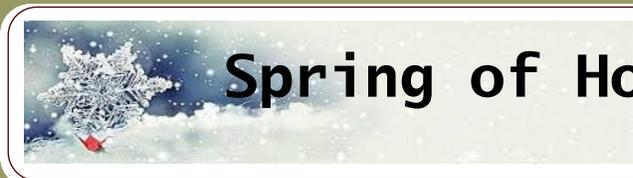

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rick Mains
611 Centerville Road
Newville, PA 17241

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Tonya Markley

3541 Williamson Road

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dick Marks

88 Wynnecrest Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Chester Martin

17819 Burnside Avenue

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jeryl Martin

6171 White Church Road

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Eugene Martin
320 Stonegate Circle N
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Enos Martin

595 Old Hershey Rd.

Elizabethtown, PA 17022

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Kirk Martin

147 S Strawberry Hill Drive

Fayetteville, PA 17222-9389

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dale Martin
Martin Investment Group
8964 Capitol Hill Road
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Brian Martin

Pinola Mulch & Stone Supplies

8611 Rowe Run Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Eldon Martin

8467 Rowe Run Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Wilma Martin

Wilma's Photography

49 North Carlisle Street

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Jeff Martin

Green Valley Mowing Service

1541 Coldsmith Road

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Edwin D. Martin
301 McCrossen Drive
Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Brian Martin

8453 Rowe Run Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Loren Martin

6614 Sheller Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Steve Martin

20126 Cherry Hill Drive

Hagerstown, MD 21741

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Loren Martin

ELM Shoes

3 Center Square

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Kirk Martin

David H. Martin Excavating

4961 Cumberland Hwy

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Maxine Martin

5 Trudy Court

Apt. 1604

Landing, NJ 07850

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs David Henry Martin

85 Dogwood Court

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Denver Martin

850 Brandon Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Joseph Martin

396 Martina Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ronnie Martin

1400 E. Main Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dean Martin

1122 North Mountain Top Road

McConnellsburg, PA 17233

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Michele Martin

Martin's Famous Pastry Shoppe, Inc.

1000 Potato Roll Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Rodney Martin

8547 Rowe Run Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Lew Martin

131 Heritage Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rolando Martinez

2910 George Street

Harrisburg, PA 17104

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Leroy Maxwell

12 Wynnecrest Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Tom McFarland

4508 Wintersweet Lane

Murrells Intl, SC 29576-4302

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Chris McGarity

12030 Gehr Road

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Kelly Mellott

P.O. Box 144

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs David Metzler
293 Cornfield Circle
Lewistown, PA 17044

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs James Metzler

70 Ironwood Drive

McVeytown, PA 17051

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

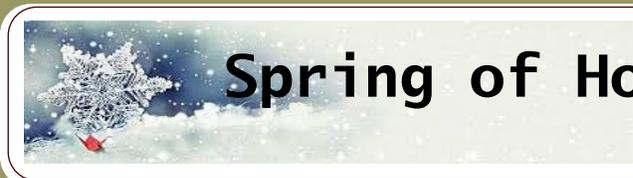

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Lawrence Metzler
Grand Point Church
22230 Grandpoint Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Darwin Meyers

Meyers Bus Lines INC

2455 Edenville Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Reuben Meyers

8346 Nyesville Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Craig Mickel

13407 Rowe Road

Smithsburg, MD 21783

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dennis Miller

250 Alleman Road

Chambersburg , PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs William Miller

713 Apple Way

St Thomas, PA 17252-9554

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rick Mouer

P0 Box 149

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Daniel Mowen

30 James Way

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Allen Mummert

10489 Fish and Game Road

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rich Murray

RCM Construction

8617 Ft. McCord Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ben Musser

91 Tyler Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Marlin Neil

16062 Mt Green Road

Spring Run, PA 17262

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Japheth Nell

Montgomery BIC Church

6727 Montgomery Church Rd.

Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Francis M. Nester
1286 Brandt Road
Mechanicsburg, PA 17055

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Natalie Newcomer

FCS Family Counseling Service

43 Philadelphia Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Dwan Newsome
Calvary Assembly Church
116 Snider Avenue
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Brenda Niedererr

108 Overhill Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Paul R. Nolt

189 Matthew Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

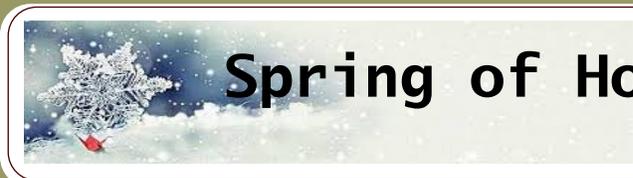

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Matthew Nolt

481 Strite Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Patti Nunemaker

7189 Stone Bridge Road

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rob Nutter

611 N. Mulberry Street

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr and Mrs Kenneth Oberholzer
2985 Jacks Mill Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Kervin Ogburn

Ogburn's Cabinet Shop Inc.

2606 Stillhouse Hollow Road

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

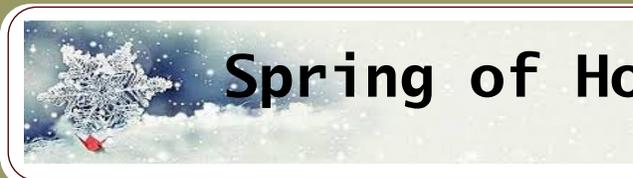

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Dori Oneill

8078 Springside Court

Boca Raton, FL 33496

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Lynette Onitiri

61 Sanibel Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

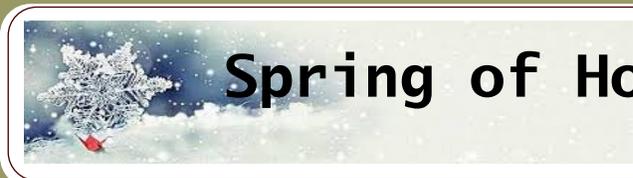

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Barry Parsons

9114 Ft. McCord Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Phillip Passarrelli

19328 Manor Church Road

Boonsboro, MD 21713

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Lee Patterson

3456 New Franklin Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Lowell Peachey

HCR 61 Box 611

Mill Creek, PA 17060

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Darren Peachey

5537 RT 414

Canton, PA 17724

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Marvin Peachey

2372 SR 655

Belleville, PA 17004

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Christopher Pence

204 Ridge Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Kalin Petersen

23297 Southdown Manor Terrace #114

Ashburn, VA 20148

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Kevin Petersen

6073 Douglas Avenue

New Market, MD 21774

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Rebecca Peterson

Route 1

Box 20 - D

Mehoopany, PA 18629

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237

888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Joe Pickens

Christian Life Assembly of God

1400 Warm Spring Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Violet Piper

309 Tritle Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Timothy Piper

Choice Collision Center

P0 Box 149, 237 Oregon St

Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Carl Piper

Greencastle Greens

1685 Brenda Drive

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Craig Pool

P.O. Box 213

Marion, PA 17235

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs John Pughe
5240 Earles Court
Fredrick, MD 21703

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237

888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Benjamin Raber

Network Ministries

557 S. 2nd Street

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Chris Ramsey

368 Butterfly Lane

Hedgesville, WV 25427

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Wyatt Rebuck

P.O. Box 284

Ft. Loudon, PA 17224

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Dr & Mrs James Resh

1128 Moonbow Drive

Westminister, MD 21157-3947

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jeff Rhodes

11375 Brookdale Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rodney Rice

89 Hershey Road

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Erin Roat

525 Forest Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jeff Robinson

1909 Farmall Drive

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Carlos Rosado
953 Quail Run Drive
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Ellen Rose

226 E. Orange Street

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Samuel Rose
14789 Wingerton Road
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Leroy Rosenberry

104 Central Way

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Carl Rosenberry

44 Pine Valley Road

Holland, OH 43528

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Jerry Roth

213 Colorado Street

P.O. Box 106

Marion, PA 17235

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Roy Rummel

6920 Gehr Road

St. Thomas, PA 17252

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

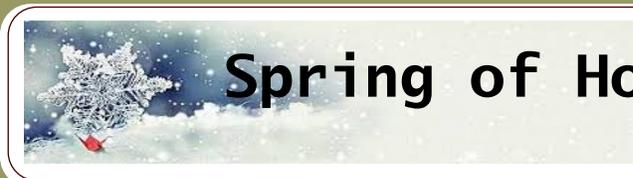

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Stanley Runk

7368 Smith Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Joseph Runk

16715 Path Valley Road

Spring Run, PA 17262

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Reed Runk
31 South Main Street
Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Larry Rush

LT Rush Stone & Fireplace

4493 Buchanon Trail E

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Michael Ryder

982 Apple Way Road

St. Thomas, PA 17252

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

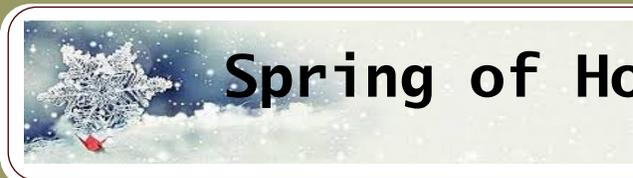

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Charles Salter

1198 Mountain Shadow Way

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Herbert Sandifer

Waynesboro Construction

10128 Amsterdam Road

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mark Schur

253 Mount Union Road

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Jay Sensenig

Fast Signs

20 Commerce Avenue

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Eric Shands

3571 Guilford Springs Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Betty Shank

204 Homewood Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Bill Shank
Five Forks B. I. C. Church
9244 Five Forks Road
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Harold Sharp

Rockville Fellowship

319 Rockville Road

Belleville, PA 17004

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Brad Shelton
5725 Greenvillage Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Don Shenk

101 Pear Lane

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

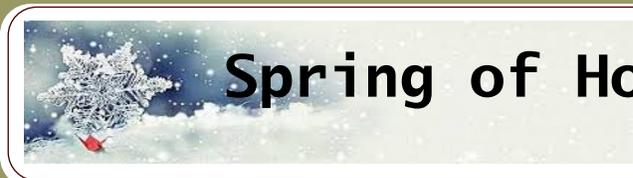

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Tony Sherman

132 Apple Bottom Court

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs William Shilling
11708 N. Potomac St. Ext.
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Dennis Shockey

811 Fairview Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Rev Mark Shover

Faith U.M. Church

104 N. Potomac Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Linden A. Showalter
136 Clayton Avenue
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Harold Showalter
15113 Mercersburg Road
Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Bill Sigler

1800 Two Turn Road

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Barrett Sites

Handyman Home Imprvts Srvs

548 Forest Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Jenell Sito

5083 Spruce Road

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Director William Sitzai

Dunamis Holdings

908 Sycamore Lane

Lebanon, PA 17046

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Andy & Rev Lynn Smalec

Salem Church

143 Coquina Sands Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Jeff Smith

25 Aspen Drive

Mont Alto, PA 17237

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Rodney Smith

Plumbing Heating and Cooling

940 Hollywell Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Calvin Smith
2313 Ivy Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21214

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Katrina Smith

950 Wilson Avenue

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dean Smith

1085 Fiddlers Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

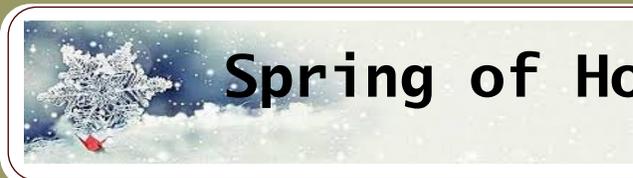

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Aaron Smith

132 N. Blackberry Lane

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Alan Smith

327A Geiser Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Ken Snodderly

14704 Greencastle Pike

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Samuel Sollenberger

1255 Candice Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Doris Sollenberger

136 Clayton Avenue

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Earl Sollenberger

S & S Electric

125 Falling Springs Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Menno Sollenberger

4169 New Franklin Road

Chambersburg , PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mike Staggs

611 Prospect Avenue

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Landis Stains
9150 Apple Jack Drive
Mercersburg, PA 17236

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Linda Stains

Antietam Reality

11103 Weatherstone Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jay Standridge

11476 Orchard Road

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Kurt Stauffer
4351 East Main Street
Belleville, PA 17001

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dale Stayman
347 Moss Spring Avenue
Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Larry Stayman

6618 Angle Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201-9241

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs William Stewart
3600 Fox Hill Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs William Stewart
1071 Willowbrook Dr.
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rob Stoppard

Destiny Unlimited International

299 Cedar Hill

Manheim, PA 17545-9010

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Eugene Strite

826 Tallow Hill Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

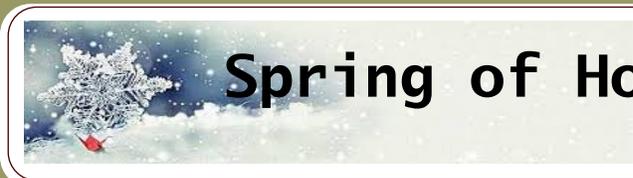

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Brian Strite
3250 Kaetzel Rd.
Rohrersville, MD 21779

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Darrel Strite Services Unlimited
2741 Harpers Ferry Rd.
Sharpsburg, MD 21782

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Jim Strite
1538 Guilford Station Road
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Steve Stupar

794A Edgewood Church Road

Frederick, MD 21702

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Brad Stutzman

Mt. Rock

Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Randall Sunderland

388 Hickory Lane

Belleville, PA 17004

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Gary Swanson
State Farm Insurance
76 E. Main Street
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Dan Swartzentruber
135 W Main Street
Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mark Taylor

406 Sunny Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Rodney Teach

11850 Catocin Drive

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Robert Tengler

203A Quincy Court

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Justin Thomas
8309 Walter Martz Road
Frederick, MD 21702

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Herbert Thomas

8737 Indian Springs Road

Frederick, MD 21702

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Lane Thrush
482 Beech Tree Street
Shippensburg, PA 17257

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Kendal Trader

428 E Liberty St.

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Gerald Traynor

261 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201-2807

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Jake Troup

2470 Williamson Road

Greencastle, PA 17225-9262

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Autumn Upole

339 W King Street

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Edward Vance
449 Bear Valley Road
Ft Loudon, PA 17224

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Michael Vario

711 Naples Drive

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr David Vario

4934 Tall Oaks Drive

Monrovia, MD 21770

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Josh Varner

LCBC

13450 Midvale Road

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mrs Melissa Varner

664 Pensinger Road

Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Edward Verhagen

14 Cecil Court

Cedar Grove, NJ 07009

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Joe Wachter

148 Ziron Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Keenan Wade

P.O. Box 184

5821 Front Street

Marion, PA 17235

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Glen Wadel

47 Carnelian Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17202-8206

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ray Wadel

7416 Nyesville Road

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Chad Wadel

Wadel's Stone & Hardscape, LLC

238 Colorado St, P O Box 203

Marion, PA 17235

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Mike Wagner
3466 Gleneagles Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

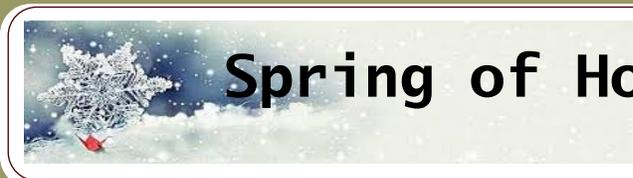

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs John Walker
Fairview Avenue BIC Church
152 Fairview Avenue
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Gail Walters

Pregnancy Ministries, Inc.

220 S. Potomac Street

Waynesboro , PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Nathan Ward

Franklin Chem-Dry Carpet Cleaners

637 Brookens Road

Fayetteville, PA 17222

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Gary Weidman

1012 Hamilton Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Richard Wetzel

24 Romance Lane

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Greg White

M&T Bank

13 West Main Street

Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Laurel White

26 Marilyn Drive

Carlisle, PA 17013

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Stacey Wingert

P.O. Box 558

Maugansville, MD 21767

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Travis Winters
706 Mahantamgo Drive
Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs H. Michael Wipf
2156 Bristol Drive
Frederick, MD 21702

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Brian Wise

2370 Jack Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs Dave Wolf

834 Winthrop Drive

Yardley, PA 19067-4317

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Ms Joy Yeager

2031 Philiadelphia Ave

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Ken Yoder

245 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Sanford Yoder

241 Justine Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me." Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - "The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart." When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - "I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom."

May the desire of our heart be that "we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other"!—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through "TRANSFORMATION." Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

Mr & Mrs Arliss Yoder

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Darren Yoder
265 Jericho Road
Belleville, PA 17004

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Larry Yoder
3299 Wayncastle Road
Greencastle, PA 17225

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs Eric Yoder

3583 Edenville Road

Chambersburg, PA 17202

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr & Mrs A.J. Yoder

1414 Nissley Rd.

Landisville, PA 17538

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Mr Paul Zeger

A Light Windows and Doors

70 Limekiln Drive

Chambersburg, PA 17201

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Dr & Mrs Robert Zimmerman
750 S. Potomac Street
Waynesboro, PA 17268

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It's an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 – “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America's foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator's Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor & Mrs J. Max Zook
Locust Grove Menn. Church
3358 W. Main Street
Belleville, PA 17004

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator

Spring of Hope Ministries

Quarterly Newsletter

February 2019

Volume 5, Issue 1

Board Members:

- Rochelle Nolt, Chairperson
- Brian Emery, Asst. Chair
- Autumn Upole, Secretary
- Lynn Eberly, Treasurer
- Melissa Sherman, Member
- Sam Rose, Member
- Wayne Kuhns, Director
- Melissa Varner, Administrator

Prayer Ministers:

- Ruth Kuhns
- Wayne Kuhns
- Rhoda Lehman
- Carissa Martin
- Wilma Martin
- Wyatt Rebuck
- Carlos Rosado
- Melissa Varner
- Kim Burkholder

Speaking the Truth is Essential!

We currently are living in a culture where people are having a problem with telling the truth. It is impacting everyone whether we are the one being untruthful or the one hearing the untruth. This seemingly has no boundaries of the people it is impacting. Even persons in positions of authority that we think have a high level of character have trouble being truthful. It is happening in personal relationships, workplaces, government and yes even in marriage and family relationships. There are times that even Christians have a problem with telling the truth! People are more concerned about gaining and maintaining their positive self-image (identity) and being right than they are about being truthful. Being untruthful will destroy healthy connections with others.

What is truth – It’s an obvious, verified, indisputable fact, proposition or principle! To speak truth is always an essential part of healthy, connecting relationships. When we speak the truth we never need to defend ourselves. We just need to continue to speak truth even if it is in the face of

criticism or resistance. Jesus said in John 14:6 - “I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.” Jesus also spoke in Luke 6:45 - “The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth what is good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth what is evil; for his mouth speaks from that which fills his heart.” When Jesus spoke this it was an obvious, indisputable fact! To speak the truth or not speak the truth is a heart issue. When we have developed a healthy connection with Jesus and allowed Him to change our heart we will always speak the truth comes from knowing that our identity is rooted in Jesus, thus at that point our need to be untruthful will dissipate! David spoke in the Psalms 51:6 (TPT) - “I know that You delight to set Your truth deep in my spirit. So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.”

May the desire of our heart be that “we always speak truth and be completely truthful in all of our communication with each other!”—Wayne Kuhns, Director

Spring of Hope Fundraising Banquet

Get your tickets for our fundraising banquet to be held on Monday, March 18th at The Grant Street Loft in Chambersburg. Come join us for an evening of dinner and fellowship as we share about the ministry of Spring of Hope and life change through “TRANSFORMATION.” Last day to purchase tickets for the fundraising banquet is March 11th.

The Great Behavior Breakdown

Training is sponsored by Spring of Hope

Learn what America’s foremost behavior expert, B. Bryan Post, has used to create change and healing within the homes of some of the most difficult children. You will obtain an in-depth understanding of the root causes of 27 of the most difficult behaviors that parents encounter.

February 22-23

For Additional Information, Contact:
office@springofhopepa.com

In this issue:

Word from The Director	1
Save the Date	1
Training Seminar	1
Client Testimony	2
Administrator’s Article	2

We're on the Web...

www.springofhope.org

Like us on FaceBook!!!

230 S. Potomac Street , Suite C
Waynesboro, PA 17268

1090 Wayne Avenue
Chambersburg, PA 17201

Tel: 717.762.0237
888.738.0234

E-mail: office@springofhopepa.com

Pastor Gary Zook

Northside Mennonite Church

716 North Locust Street

Hagerstown, MD 21740

"Ministering Life and Hope Through Counseling and Teaching"

Testimony from one of our clients—I first encountered Spring of Hope years ago when I attended to support a family member. About 3 years ago, I began counseling myself to attack some roots from my childhood that had a stronghold on me. The spiritual support and prayer helped me break away from a dysfunctional relationship and continue to support me in a journey to complete my inner healing and living out God's direction in my life. Some action words that I am experiencing in this new journey are rest, receive, faith, and trust as these have all been hard for me to envision in my past. God works with me to chip away legalism, judgement, and feelings of unworthiness. He is refining me in the fire to create a new spirit within me. God always provides the open door for us exactly when we need it. —Dori

In the urgency of a moment, how often do we provide an answer or a respond immediately to a question or a situation? What prompts that immediate response? It is very clear as Mark writes his gospel that Jesus left an impact on him concerning the

"immediately"

of life and ministry. In the first chapter of Mark alone there are at least ten "immediately" responses. (NASB Version)

We see the first immediately the moment Jesus comes up out of the water of baptism when the Holy Spirit descends on him. THEN, immediately compelled by the spirit, he was led into the wilderness to be tested. Often, following the response of yes to Jesus, the spirit immediately leads us into a wilderness of temptation to face our doubt, unbelief, fear, anger, frustration, rejection, depression, anxiety, and the weaknesses of our lives through the fire of temptation. Jesus stands strong turning to scripture as his weapon of defense. Anointed by the power of the Holy Spirit, he steps into ministry preaching and healing. He calls us in the wake of our own refining fire of the wilderness to follow him. The immediately response is to leave everything behind including our jobs, our dreams, our wants, and sometimes even family. These distract from his

purpose and mission for our life ultimately interfering with an immediate response to follow Him.

Church is the next response in this story. Immediately on the Sabbath, church is where Jesus goes to preach. His teaching comes with such authority of heaven it amazes and exposes the unclean. The rebuke of Jesus to the unclean spirit created such a stir that immediately news about him spread everywhere. Anointing power amazes anyone who experiences the truth of its teaching. People talk about it. It also sheds light on hidden attitudes, belief, and behaviors that Jesus wants to transform and heal. Unclean exposed can no longer stand in the presence of Jesus. It runs. If Jesus could do nothing apart from the working of the Holy Spirit, how much more do we need the Spirit's empowerment for ministry especially in our churches?

Jesus wasn't finished yet. He desires for our families to experience this miraculous power and authority as well. They head to Simon and Andrew's house for Sunday lunch. Arriving there, they find Simon's mother-in-law sick with fever. Hesitation complies and immediately they speak to Jesus about her. Power of Jesus is invited into our families when we turn first to Him during sickness whether physical, emotional, including the hardships of life. Not only did Jesus heal Simon's mother-in-law,

but as evening comes, the town brings all their sick for him to heal. Miracles now going beyond their family to the entire community. He does not then confine himself to one town. He goes about the countryside preaching and casting out demons. Jesus impacted the church to impact the family to impact the entire community.

Still, Jesus is not done. As Jesus goes out into the communities, the outcasts now experience the immediately of this kingdom. A leper, obviously aware of all that was happening, appeals to Jesus. His plea was, "If you are willing." Too often we see ourselves as outcasts of heaven thinking that He isn't willing to get involved in the shameless messes of our lives. We are stuck in seemingly endless circumstances that are unchanging assuming he is unwilling. People have turned their backs on us or have sent us away and we expect Jesus to do the same. As compassion moves within Jesus, he reaches out. Notice the leper asked already knowing that Jesus could. He wanted to know if Jesus was willing. Jesus touched him. In so doing, He also touched his life. Suddenly what isolated immediately vanished leaving him cleansed. All are to experience the power and authority of the gospel through preaching, teaching and healing and He desires to use us to do it.

—Melissa Varner, Administrator